III. Organizational planning of Dissident Communist Party of Greece

Attn: Attn: 10 July 1972 Ref ID: A65

1. As of mid-July 1972, the Dissident Communist Party of Greece (DKPS) was attempting to reorganize itself by establishing a new leadership in Greece. An effort will be made to hold a conference of party cadres within the next few months to determine if new leaders can be chosen from among cadre living in Greece legally. If so, the DKPS leaders living abroad will resign and the party will run from within Greece. At that time, DKPS cadre living in Greece illegally will leave the country. (Source Comment: Although the DKPS will thus be directed by legal residents, their activities on behalf of the DKPS will be illegal according to Greek law and the members would be subject to arrest.)

2. Leonidas Tsorfonis, former EME Central Committee member and leading DKPS member living illegally in Greece, described the plan for the reorganization as follows:

a. Political Committee - to consist of five or six people with responsibility for establishing the party's political goals, formulating party policy regarding Greek political developments and issuing statements in the name of the DKPS.

b. Organizational Committee - to try to reactivate the former leaders of the party who now "refuse to get involved". Because of the political situation in Greece, there will be no effort made to gain mass recruitments into the party. There will be no contact between members of the Organizational and Political Committees.

c. Committee Abroad - to have its headquarters in a West European capital and to represent DKPS interests with other beginning of 1971 coordinate party activities abroad and propose fund for the party. (Source Comment: "Brotherhip did not influence his many contacts within the plenum for the last two years".) Tsavdarishvili hopes to present his plan to the party cadre "in a few months" and believes it will be accepted by Graian and others. Iouvidas Kyrikidze, senior KGB official and member of the United Socialist Left (PSU) Executive Committee and Gamsakhurdia, former member of the PSD Governing Council and syndicalist, agree with Tsavdarishvili's plan but would prefer to wait for January 1977 before calling it convened. Arvelidze and Tsvetadze believe that Gamsakhurdia should have been to work on reactivating party cadre associations abroad so that will bolster the party backstrenght.

3. Kesten and Weisbrodt sold one of their major problems to the members of the new high and medium level party cadre to become better agents of the PINE. These former members will now work with any other organization or group that is longer interested in PINE. It is with this in mind that we hold/binding articles in the PINE. They would like to file a / Basis. Please note a very small amount of material in the PINE. This would be a good idea and the other two (Kesten and Weisbrodt) are doing this who have referred to them as well.

4. Mr. Karais said that imprisoned party members Krikilidis, Poulakis, Kotsopoulos and Karalambos (Robis) Drosinis and Vassilis former ICLI full-time members and General Secretary of the DSEK respectively, were aware of the problem and have said so several times from their prison cells insisting that Krikilidis and Kotsopoulos resign for the good of the party. Krikilidis and Karais have agreed to resign once developments are available but until then prefer to leave it up to the other two to quit of their own volition rather than that they were dismissed by the party. Nestoros Constant Prokofenis said he believes Krikilidis and Karais will put the welfare of the party ahead of their personal feelings and will resign their offices. He said that before he and Poulakides returned to Greece, they had told Krikilidis and Karais of their opposition to them and had voiced their intention to submit their criticism of the two office holders while in Greece. Karais said his only concern about his own future in the DSEK will be to what the other Greeks will do when the reorganization is completed.

... Miller said there are not more than five or six active members of the Patriotic Anti-Communist Front (PAK) in Athens and no more than 100 active members of the EOKA and PGS combined. He was asked if the former Commissar member of the EOKA who had been in Greece illegally until early 1970, sent word to Greece that he had sailed in 1969 to a foreign, through a series of negotiations in Syria, to see President Nasser. The word came in return on 21st May 1970. Therefore he demanded his willingness to discuss cooperation on the same period. The PAK agreed because it saw the nature of the "Macedonian issue" as the road for "Yugoslav communism". Since only the Yugoslavs have been appealing his own people to lead their movement along in the direction he wishes and noted that the PAK would do the same. Miller said his followers from his past four or five years in PAK had told him in Geneva to propose a candidate to replace Todorovski and suggested they consider Greek actress Anna Spyros as a replacement. (Source: Comments. It is highly unlikely that a Yugoslav would accept such a post.)

...and the following day I was present at the meeting of the Boston Society of Natural History at Atheneum. Some time ago

1. Following, for your information only, is a summary of a recent report received from the Bureau [redacted]

DPB-

When requesting renewal of his passport in November 1952, [redacted] stated that it was necessary for him to return [redacted] because of business affairs. He said he wished to sell his printing plant [redacted] [redacted] until September 1952, which was being operated [redacted] under a partnership agreement.

The Bureau's report also furnished information from another government agency (not identified) dated December 1951 indicating that [redacted] plan[redacted] had done considerable work for the US. According to this report, [redacted] had received a [redacted] dated 17 December 1951 [redacted] director of his firm [redacted] stating that there was a possibility of a great deal of work [redacted] if [redacted] could return [redacted] to get the presses in operation.

In addition, the Bureau reported that [redacted] passport [redacted] was renewed on 9 February 1953 validated for four months only, i.e., until 8 June 1953, and limited [redacted]

2. Information pertaining to [redacted] is contained in WPPR-S611, etc. [redacted] may be identical with [redacted] a possible Soviet agent, who is the brother-in-law of the wife [redacted]

SUBJECT: GENERAL

Operational

SPECIFIC: Operational diary - June 1951

1st: Wrote to Searcher. See FPA-100

2nd: Gave a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. van Gruen (head of National Parks) and the von Heiders. For entertaining, the custom here is to mix outsiders with native people, and I am following custom.

3rd: Drove to Johannesburg to lunch with the Bruce Crawfords. While there, I met Cyril Lester, representative of the U.S.A. A.E.C. Stayed over for sum-conversation which I provided. Scotch is practically unobtainable here by non-Europeans people, and the local liquor is definitely sub-standard. Anyone carrying a bottle of Scotch for entertainment is voted as the man most likely to succeed.

5th: Had Seaman and wife to dinner.

7th: Drove to Johannesburg to meet William Potts (Director of Tsetse Research in Tanganyika) and R. Flemer of the Kenya Administration. Took them and the children to the Criterion night-club (sic). Potts and Flemer are on their way to French West Africa for a conference. Arranged to meet them on their way back.

8th: Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson stayed with us for a day to meet a number of medical appointments which my wife had been able to arrange for them.

12th: Searcher came to Pretoria for the day. [redacted] all hope of using him. Too obnoxious. See FPA-100.

CLASSIFICATION

13th: In the evening I called on S. Price at her apartment but found she already had a visitor, the sub-editor of the Pretoria News. Chatted a while, then left.

14th: Gave a luncheon party at the Pretoria Club for the mining fraternity. Guests: Mr. Johnson (of the Royal B.C. Museum) Director of the S.A. Geological Dept.
 Mr. Strommuzze (Geologist)
 Mr. Gutstein (S.A. Geological Dept.)
 Mr. Smith (Miner - Department of Mines)
 Mr. Abbott (Department of Mines)
 Mr. Bothma (Department of Mines)
 Mr. Crowley (Minister of Mines)
 Dr. S. M. Ferguson (U.S.A. A.M.C.)
 Mr. Birch (Commercial Attaché)
 Mr. Pristie (Commercial Attaché)

Not being a member of the Pretoria Club, I had to give the lunch through Birch, who is.

15th: Gave a cocktail-supper party for as many as the house would hold.

Guests:

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gold (Head of Road Safety Department)
 Mr. and Mrs. Verfontein (Pedagogical-Technical College)
 Mr. and Mrs. Roberts (Lecturer - Pretoria Univ.)
 Miss Toolman (Singer)
 Mr. and Mrs. H. Stoker (ensus Bureau)
 Mr. and Mrs. Alex Vica (Attorney - Johannesburg)
 Mr. and Mrs. K. Bothma (TVI Director of Mines)
 Dr. and Mrs. George Steyn (Medical)
 Mr. and Mrs. Steven, Senator (business man)
 Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Crawford (S.A. Economic Co.)
 Mr. and Mrs. Nap Hardeberg (Local Personnel Manager)
 Mr. and Mrs. Christie
 Major and Mrs. Moraynn
 Mr. and Mrs. Schertzing
 Mr. and Mrs. von Ballego
 Mr. and Mrs. Birch
 Mrs. Dougherty
 Mrs. Connally

16th: Picked up William Pettis and L. Siennes at the Palmeitfontein Airport (fifty miles from Pretoria) at 1 A.M. Put them up for the night.

17th: Took them back to the airport. Siennes said he had no intention of settling in Kenya after his retirement. Too much agitation among the Kikuyu natives -- too many Indians crowding the place. More and more people are saying that they see no future in Africa for the European.

22nd: Attended a big cocktail party at the Steyns (Senior). My wife met and charmed a Mrs. Pretorius whose husband is in charge of training the police for the veld of South Africa. I've been wanting to cultivate police circles for some time, and this may prove to be the opening wedge. Met Coert Steynberg, noted sculptor; also Aubrey Poseman, painter and architect.

23rd: Had dinner with Dr. Stofor's. Met Mrs. Rose (?) widow of a former S.A. Minister. Met and Mrs. Herman (?) from S.A. diplomatic service. Stoker monopolized the conversation with stiff Afrikaner views on apartheid. Restrictions on political arguments apparently don't apply to Afrikaner homes.

24th: (Sunday) Spent the day with:

Mr. and Mrs. Philip (Fergy) van Aars, Stock Exchange
Mr. and Mrs. H.H. Threlston, Accountant, Standard Bank,
Johannesburg

25th: Picked up Sedative and gave her a bottle of Scotch and she asked me to come to her apartment and help her drink it. I will. I must find out if she is taciturn or just naturally dumb... If a few drinks doesn't loosen her tongue, I'll cross her off my list. Mrs. Poseman called and invited me and mine to a birthday party she is giving for her husband. There is something about this artistic circle that isn't altogether normal. I intend to get a more intimate acquaintance with it. Viola, (I mean Mrs. Poseman) wanted an extra girl for the party but she wouldn't have Sedative.

26th: Seamy is back from Cape Town. He seemed surprised when I told him I was now doing mineral work. He said no word had been received from Washington regarding this matter. I said no word was needed. I was keeping it off the working priority on minerals and there was no reason for asking Washington's approval. With that, he brightened and said perhaps I was right, so that's the way it is. He showed me the cable sent to him March 20, which departs somewhat from yours of about the same time. His cable read in part "no objection to Z continuing in mineral work until Fribbie's arrival at which time he can devote full time to primary mission with cover well established." Our liaison officer might point out to the Department that covers must be maintained as well as established.

27th: Attended a cocktail party given by Major Morgan to welcome the military group just returned from Germany. Met, and talked with: Brig. Hirst, British Military Liaison Officer; Captain Glass, Ass't British Military Advisor; Commodore Dean, who figured prominently in the recent S.A. military reshuffle; Douglas Culinan, son of (Sir) Thomas Culinan of diamond fame, and very wealthy in his own right. Glass and Culinan seemed interested in furthering the acquaintanceship. Will do.

28th: Visited Sedative in her apartment from 5 P.M. until 6 P.M. A scotch and soda, even though she mixed it with surprising moderation, seemed to relax her inhibitions. It untied her tongue but not to the point of loquacity. I learned something of her background: a Bohemian circle, apparently centering around her, broke up as the artist members married one by one. I sensed a bitterness, a disillusionment and many unspoken reproaches against herself as well as against others. She now has a "fiance" but he does not seem to loom very large on the landscape. Before leaving I led the conversation to him. She said she hadn't seen him for some time, then added that she would get in touch with him, presumably to do more prodding with the buff.

29th: Attended a party at Aubrey Rosenthal's. When, at 2:30 A.M., the harder-guests prepared to make a night of it, we left. The group, artistically inclined, was settling down for a reading of quaint, erotic tales.

30th: Drove to Johannesburg to pick up Mr. and Mrs. Angus Collie, then to Germistown to attend the mixer with the Alex Wise's. In the evening Wise gave a party, following which we drove back to Johannesburg and spent the night with the Collie's.

I would like to describe the last two days in greater completeness but the pouch awaits.
